

Highlights

- Julia and filled in Julia sets are rendered in three dimensional scator space
- The sets exhibit a rich fractal boundary, 3D self similar structures exist at all scales
- Inverse orbits of the hypercomplex roots reveal an interesting complex structure
- Fixed points are obtained from the roots of the scator quadratic equation
- It is conjectured that the fundamental dichotomy is true in 3D scator algebra